RICKY MOSS | Captain | South Africa

I'm Captain Ricky Moss, from Mossel Bay, South Africa. With qualifications like Yacht Master Ocean and a Diploma in Hospitality Management, I've cruised the Caribbean and Mediterranean on yachts from 48ft to 95ft. Passionate about diving, surfing, and water sports, I strive to provide exceptional service and ensure guests have unforgettable experiences.

I am an energetic, trustworthy, and highly self-motivated individual. Through my yachting experience, I have gained the ability to multitask while maintaining professionalism and delivering a high level of service. I adapt to every charter and guest, ensuring they have the best time and become repeat clients. My priority is to make sure they have a great time and return home safely.

Passionate about all forms of water sports, Captain Mike delights in sharing his love for the sea with both guests and crew members alike. As an avid scuba diver and angler, he also enjoys tennis, golf, and a myriad of other sports, offering his expertise to help others excel. With three daughters of his own, Captain Mike

KEVIN PONTEEM | First Mate | St. Kitts

As a true ocean lover at heart born and raised in the Caribbean I hold several certifications, including Certified Scuba Diver, Boat Master, Coast Guard Officer, Marine Pilot, and Water Sports and Tour Boat Owner.

I have served as the First Mate on the 95ft Sunseeker Power Yacht, Accidental Success 2, and have cruised extensively in the Caribbean. In my free time, I enjoy fishing and playing football. I aspire to become a marine educator in the future. With extensive boating experience and local knowledge as a native of St. Kitts and Nevis, I bring a deep passion for the sea to every charter. I love swimming and taking guests on snorkel tours, as well as guiding water skiing and tubing activities. I enjoy socializing and ensuring guests have a memorable experience

CAMERON NEWTON | Chef | South Africa

My name is Cameron Newton, a 33-year-old chef from Durban, South Africa. I have worked on yachts ranging from 20m to 140m, cruising the Mediterranean and the Caribbean. My hobbies include cooking, outdoor activities, surfing, and fishing.

I'm a people's person, dedicated to ensuring everyone is well-fed and satisfied. I was once a captain, which adds a unique perspective to my culinary role on board.

LYNDSAY VOS | Chief Stewardess | South Africa

Born and raised in Johannesburg, South Africa, I always wanted to travel. My love for the ocean led me to the British Virgin Islands, where I embraced life at sea.

I've worked as a sole stewardess on various vessels from 45ft to 95ft sail catamarans and motor yachts. My hospitality experience includes villa management, guest services, and being a yoga instructor at a private resort in the BVI. I also have experience as a server and restaurant manager.

Passionate about wellness, my interest in yoga motivates me to pursue a balanced lifestyle I can share with others. I aim to venture into holistic health to help people achieve sustainable and fulfilling lives. I enjoy entertaining and engaging with diverse individuals, cherishing the connections and memories made in my profession.
