MEET THE CREW

CAPTAIN
GARRON BURGER

SOUTH AFRICAN

Garron hails from South Africa and grew up in Johannesburg, studied Financial Analysis at Stellenbosch University, and lives in Cape Town presently.

This will be Garron's 15th year in yachting and has grown up around lakes, dams, and the seaside, has always been drawn to the ocean and boats, its sense of freedom, and, being a traveler at heart, yachting provides the enjoyment of both. His hobbies include snowboarding, water sports, creative writing, photography, and film editing. Garron is also an adventure sports enthusiast and enjoys sports such as mountain biking and skydiving.

Known as Gaz by crew, friends, and family, this gent is always keen to help, provide top-notch service and experience, and make your adventure onboard not just thrilling but also memorable and extraordinary.

CHEF
BILLY NYKOLUK

CANADIEN

Our chef Billy is from Canada. He started his cooking career with a 3-year apprenticeship course in Winnipeg, Manitoba; graduating with a Red Seal Diploma. From there he began his career at sea working on a few small cruise lines before moving to Crystal Cruise a Six Star cruise line; ranked number one in the world for 11 years in a row.

For the last 14 years, he has been working in the yachting industry, learning more and more about healthy, low-fat, and vegetarian cuisine.

He enjoys going to the local markets and making his menus around the local and fresh vegetables. As well as planning menus based around seasonal food. Billy enjoys meeting guests and working to create the best possible food experience for them. In his spare time, he enjoys reading, jogging, and creating new recipes for his role as a chef onboard.

FIRST MATE

BRANDON MCAFEE

SOUTH AFRICAN

Brandon comes from Knysna a small coastal yachting town in South Africa. He has grown up on the water for much of his childhood, he is therefore confident, knowledgeable, and comfortable in the marine industry.

He enjoys the professional adventure yachting has to offer and all the amazing countries they get to see.

He plans to continue to work hard in the industry in order to one day become a captain. He enjoys all water sports and he looks forward to welcoming you onboard

CHIEF STEW

NATASHA PRETORIUS

SOUTH AFRICAN

Graham returns to us as an official member of Luna B. He has come in to do relief work with us over the years and we have finally convinced him to stay! Graham lives in a beautiful village in the Cotswolds in the UK with his wife and baby on the way. He has been in the yachting industry for over a decade and brings with him an abundance of knowledge.

Graham's love of the sea comes from a young age sailing around in Greece with his family. Having grown up in and around London, his sense of adventure and desire to travel made it an easy choice to leave the city and join the yachting industry. As a keen sportsman, he likes to get involved with any activity, whether that's competing or watching. His biggest passion is swimming and can be found most mornings doing laps in the pool.

Outside of yachting Graham enjoys working on business and investing. He currently owns a herbal tea and supplement company that he runs with his wife in the UK. If you are a herbal tea fanatic, be sure to ask him for a sample!

2ND STEW

JESSICA SARMIAS

SOUTH AFRICAN

Born in Harare, Zimbabwe, Jessica grew up swimming competitively and going sailing with her family each weekend, where her love of water started from an early age. After attending The University of Pretoria she began a career in the teaching industry in Vietnam, which led to her love of worldwide travel.

Her adventurous spirit, curiosity to discover the globe and passion for high-end service made the transition into the yachting industry natural and smooth. When not working, Jessica enjoys exercising, going to festivals with friends, swimming in the ocean, and spending time with loved ones.

Jessica looks forward to making every yacht charter onboard Okko unique and memorable for all guests.

ENGINEER

DANIELE PAROLA

ITALIAN

Since Dani was really little he always had a passion for engines and technical matters, dismounting toys to see how they work and building others.

Growing up he took the mechanical route which became his profession.

Dani started working as a mechanic in shore-based workshops in Italy and Australia before he moved into the yachting industry to start as a yacht engineer. Dani is from a small town in northern Italy, and enjoys traveling and discovering new places, and meeting people of different nationalities. In his free time, he loves to ride motorbikes and mountain biking and spend time fishing and doing water sports activities.

DECK ENGINEER

LE ROUX GROENEWALD

SOUTH AFRICAN

Le Roux Groenewald grew up on a farm outside a small South African town in the mountains. This is where he cultivated his passion for the outdoors and the urge to get out and travel the world.

He enjoys his health and fitness embracing the physical work on deck and doing water sports with the guests. Being in the industry for 5 years Le Roux is proficient in all aspects on deck to make it as fun as possible for guests of all ages in and out of the water. He is easy to talk to and very excited to welcome guests onboard!
